

Integrative Spirituality in the Fourth Industrial Revolution

- Living Dharma
- Technology
- Human flourishing

THE IDEA IN ONE MINUTE

Connects dharmic purpose and integrative spirituality with human flourishing amid technological change.

1

Moves from how we do things to why we exist

2

Places human purpose at the centre of innovation

3

Links technological change with inner development

WHY THIS MATTERS FOR LIVING DHARMA

Knowledge becomes dharmic when it strengthens responsibility, wise action and care for the interconnected whole.
